Live Commentary

Summary: Lorenzo gave us yet another dominant performance to take his 6th victory of the season. He leads the championship by a massive 72 points. His closest championship rival, Dani Pedrosa, crashed out from the lead on lap 11. Casey Stoner (Ducati) finished in 2nd - his best position this season. Valentino Rossi gave us another stunning show to finish in the final podium position.

Dovizioso comes in 4th, followed by three American riders - Nicky Hayden, Ben Spies, and Colin Edwards in 5th, 6th and 7th. Spies would be particularly disappointed as he believed he had the pace to take a podium finish for his home race. Melandri, Kallio, and Capirossi complete the top 10.
